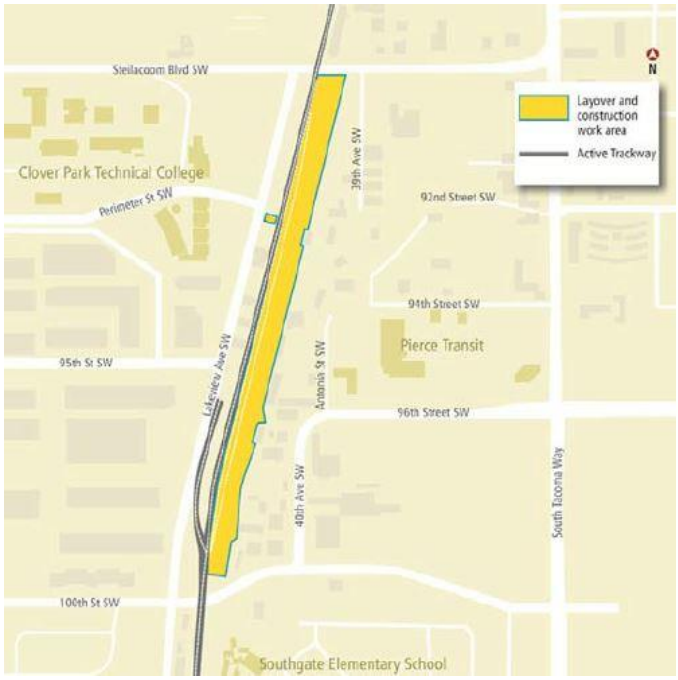
Lakewood Layover

Improvements were made to the Lakewood site where Sounder trains are stored overnight. Located between 100th Street Southwest and Steilacoom Boulevard, the Lakewood layover project included improvements to the site's power, service and maintenance access and security. Storage tracks were previously built as part of the M-to-Lakewood track and signal project.

Mode:

Sounder

Highlights:

Milestone: Construction completed spring 2013


Consultants & contractors: Pease Construction, Inc. (Construction)